Accident Investigation & Courtroom Skills

Date: TBC 2018

Location: TBC

Course Outline

Delegates will learn how to apply best practice to the investigation & reporting of Incidents. This will help provide for effective risk management and knowledge on how the adversarial system works.

This two day training course will cover the relevant skills needed to complete and support an Incident Report in accordance with best practice. Delegates will also get a clear understanding of how to manage an Incident from the initial stage right up to providing clear information to judicial investigations.

Participants can also experience and engage proactively in mock court scenarios, where all delegates are cross-examined on their own personal case study. The techniques lawyers use in adversarial questioning will also be examined. This will highlight the importance of accurate factual notes and statements.

This course will also show participants how to make appropriate use of supporting evidence, documents and notes when giving evidence and how to give confident and clear evidence when called upon.

Who Should Attend?

Good Incident Investigation is essential to effective risk management. This course will give delegates the confidence that they are responding to Incidents appropriately and effectively. Delegates will leave gaining the skills required to conduct a full and impartial Incident Report.
